2. Introduction

- 2.1. XM ZA (Pty) Ltd (the “Company” or “us” or “we”) is a private company registered in the Republic of South Africa under the company registration number 2018/527968/07. The Company is authorized and regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority (“FSCA”) as a Financial Services Provider (FSP No. 49976) in relation to the provision of intermediary services in connection with derivative products. The Company operates under the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act 37 of 2002 (“FAIS Act”) as amended or in force from time to time.
- 2.2. For the purpose of POPI and PAIA, the Company is defined as a Private Body. In accordance with the Company’s obligations in terms of POPI and PAIA, the Company has produced this Manual which sets out all information required by both PAIA and POPI.

3. Purpose of the PAIA Manual

- 3.1. This PAIA Manual is intended to ensure that the Company complies with POPI and PAIA and to strengthen the transparency and accountability within the Company by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.2. This Manual is useful for the public to:
- 3.2.1. check the categories of records held by the Company which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
 - 3.2.2. have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the Company, by providing a description of the subjects on which the Company holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
 - 3.2.3. know the description of the records of the Company which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
 - 3.2.4. access all the relevant contact details of the IO and DIO who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
 - 3.2.5. know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
 - 3.2.6. know if the Company will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
 - 3.2.7. know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
 - 3.2.8. know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;

XM ZA (Pty) Ltd acts solely as a direct marketer/intermediary in terms of the FAIS Act, rendering only an intermediary service (no market making) in relation to derivative products (CFDs) offered by XM Global Limited.

3.2.9. know if the Company has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and

3.2.10. know whether the Company has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

3.3. Section 9, Chapter 3 of the Act recognizes that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

- 8.3. The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the IO or the DIO to identify:
 - the record or records requested; and
 - the identity of the requester.
- 8.4. The requester must state that he / she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.
- 8.5. Where a request for access has been received, the IO will notify the requester of the receipt and the prescribed fee (if any) that is payable prior to processing the request. Please refer to section 11 for a full breakdown of fees payable.

The notice must state:

- The amount of the deposit payable (if any)
 - That the requester may lodge a complaint with the Regulator or an application with a court; against the tender or payment of the request fee, or the tender or payment of a deposit, as the case may be; and
 - The procedure (including the period) for lodging the complaint with the Information Regulator or the application.
- 8.6. Except to the extent that the provisions regarding third party notification may apply, the IO to whom the request is made, must as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event within thirty (30) days, after the request has been received in the prescribed format:
 - Decide in accordance with PAIA whether to grant the request; and
 - Notify the requester of the decision and, if the requester stated that he or she wishes to be informed of the decision in any other manner, inform him or her in that manner, if it is reasonably possible.

If the request for access is granted, the notice must state:

- The access fee (if any) to be paid upon access;
- The form in which access will be given; and
- That the requester may lodge a complaint with the Regulator or an application with a court against the access fee to be paid or the form of access granted, and the procedure, including the period allowed, for lodging a complaint with the Regulator or the application.

If the request for access is refused, the notice must:

- State adequate reasons for the refusal, including the relevant provision of PAIA that was relied on;
- Exclude, from any such reasons, any reference to the content of the records; and
- State that the requester may lodge a complaint with the Regulator or an application with a court against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging a complaint with the Regulator or the application.

Should all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record requested, and there are reasonable grounds for believing that the record:

- Is in the Company's possession, but cannot be found; or
- Simply does not exist,

the IO must, by way of affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to provide access to that record. The affidavit or affirmation must provide full account of all steps taken to find the record in question or to determine whether the record exists, as the case may be, including all communication with every person who conducted the search on behalf of the IO.

- 8.7. If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requesting person must submit proof of the capacity in which he / she is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the IO.
- 8.8. All information as listed herein should be provided, and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The IO shall sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

8.9. The outcome of the request and the fees payable will be provided in the form of the prescribed Form 3 in Appendix C enclosed hereto.

9. Refusal of access to records

9.1. The Information Officer must assess whether there are any grounds for refusing a request for access. Where any grounds for refusal are found, a request for access will not be granted. Where there are no grounds for refusal, request for access will be granted.

9.2. Despite finding any grounds for refusal, access to the record(s) will be provided where:

9.2.1. the disclosure of the record would reveal evidence of a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law or imminent and serious public or environmental risk; and

9.2.2. the public interest in disclosing record, will clearly outweigh the harm contemplated in the provision in question.

9.3. If a request for access is made with regards to a record containing information that would justify a ground for refusal, every part of the record which:

9.3.1. does not contain; and

9.3.2. can reasonably be severed from any part that contains, any such information must, despite any other provision of PAIA, also be disclosed.

9.4. The main grounds for the Company to refuse a request for information relate to the:

9.4.1. mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;

9.4.2. mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;

9.4.3. mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64), if the record contains:

- trade secrets of the third party;
- financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
- information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

9.4.4. mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;

9.4.5. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66);

9.4.6. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67);

9.4.7. The commercial activities (section 68) of a private body, such as the Company, which may include:

- trade secrets of the Company;
- financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Company;
- information which, if disclosed could put the Company at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- a computer program which is owned by the Company, and which is protected by copyright;
- the research information (section 69) of IFX Brokers or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of IFX Brokers™, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

9.4.8. mandatory protection of research information of third party, and protection of research information of the Company (section 69, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the Company, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage; and

XM ZA (Pty) Ltd acts solely as a direct marketer/intermediary in terms of the FAIS Act, rendering only an intermediary service (no market making) in relation to derivative products (CFDs) offered by XM Global Limited.

9.4.9. Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

9.5. All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.

9.6. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the IO shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the Act. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the IO refuses access to such record.

10. Remedies available upon refusal of request

10.1. Internal Remedies

The Company does not have an internal appeal procedure (and, as a Private Body, it is not obliged to have one). This means that any decision made by the IO regarding a request for access to information is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the IO.

10.2. External Remedies

A requestor or a third party that is dissatisfied with the IO's refusal to disclose information, may in accordance with sections 56(3) (c) and 78 of PAIA, apply to a court for relief within 180 days of notification of the decision for appropriate relief.

11. Fees

11.1. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- (a) A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered. The request fee is not refundable; and
- (b) An access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the Private Body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

11.2. When the request is received by the IO/DIO, he/she shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request.

11.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed (six), an additional deposit must be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request was granted).

11.4. A requester may lodge an application with a court against the render/payment of the fees and/or deposit.

11.5. The IO may withhold a record until the requester has paid the applicable fees.

11.6. Persons exempted from paying access fees:

- (a) persons who earn less than R14,712.00 per annum and married persons or a person and his/her life partner who earn less than R27,192.00 per annum are exempt from paying the request fee.
- (b) Personal requesters are exempt from paying the request fee.
